

Warranty:

We stand behind our workmanship and offer a 90-day warranty on all services provided. Should you have any reasonable requests for craftsmanship correction, we will address them promptly and efficiently. It's important to note that materials provided by the client are governed by manufacturer warranties. Therefore, any defects in such materials are the responsibility of the client. Labor costs associated with the replacement of defective materials will be charged accordingly. In all cases, the manufacturer's warranty shall prevail.
